

ARTS GRANTS OPPORTUNITIES

Arts in the Afternoon

"The Universal Child"

Portrait & Figure Painting with Teens

- See all Grantees

- View Funds List

- Victor Thomas Jacoby Grant Award 2008 Application 2008 Application

Jacoby, an internationally recognized tapestry weaver, established a fund to "encourage the exploration of new ideas, materials, techniques, mediums, images, etc, as well as excellence." The cash grant will be made annually to an artist or craftsperson currently residing in Humboldt County. In 2008, the award will be open to all artists and crafts people of Humboldt County.

- Ruth Marcus Memorial Writing Scholarship 2008 Application 2008 Application

Ruth was a devoted mother, sister and friend and was active in the creative arts from an early age as a radio, TV and film actress, pianist and writer. This grant will be awarded to an aspiring writer of any age who will use it for "The Greatest Good" and further his or her individual interest in writing professionally.

- Peter E. Palmquist Grant for Historical Photographic Research 2008 Application 2008 Application

This annual grant supports the study of under-researched women photographers internationally and Western American photographers before 1900.

- Project Grants to Artists 2008 Application 2008 Application

Project Grants to Artists and Grants to Emerging Artists are available as part of the NCCT's current initiative through the James Irvine Foundation. These awards will be available through 2007 and range from $500 to $5000. Priorities are given to exemplary art which actively engages the community in the process or the product of the art.

- Redwood Empire Quilters Guild 2008 Application 2008 Application

The REQG promotes the appreciation and knowledge of quilts throughout Humboldt County. The fund will cover material costs, provide honoraria for instructors, curators and artists for workshops and classes; and support fellowships for individuals to attend educational programs related to the fiber arts field.

- Lynne & Bob Wells Grant for Performing Artists 2008 Application 2008 Application

An annual grant is given from this donor-advised fund for excellence in the performing arts.

The award is open to performing artists residing in Humboldt County.